

Number of LIS Deemed Notices Mailed by CMS, By State By Month

In May, 2005, CMS mailed notices to people with Medicare and Medicaid (full-benefit dual eligibles) and people who get help from their State Medicaid program paying their Medicare premiums (Medicare Savings Programs) in 44 States and the District of Columbia, notifying them they automatically qualify for the low-income subsidy (LIS). In June, 2005, CMS is mailing notices to: people with Medicare and Medicaid (full-benefit dual eligibles) and people who get help from their State Medicaid program paying their Medicare premiums (Medicare Savings Programs) in 6 remaining states (FL, IL, MD, SC, VT, WI); and people with Medicare who get Supplemental Security Income (SSI) but no Medicaid.

Note: This is based on existing data submitted by States in March and April. We will receive updated data from States starting in June on a monthly basis.

*Most people with Medicare who are deemed eligible for the low-income subsidy in these States will receive a notice in June. These individuals likely received a notice due to a change in residence between the point in time when they were deemed eligible and the point at which the mail tape was created.
